Dear Mr Quello,

I am continuously amazed not by receiving national awards such as the recent "2008 Giants of Broadcasting" Award but by your ability to stay on top of every issue of import in the media arena. You are an inspiration that I aspire to every day here at the FCC and your friendship an immeasurable blessing. Thank you for your continued service to America as soldier, hero, FCC Chairman and ardent advocate for good public policy. America is lucky to call you son. I am even more fortunate to call you friend.

Please accept my heart-felt congratulations and very best wishes on this well-deserved honor. I only wish I could be there to stand and cheer as you receive this distinguished, lifetime achievement.

Sincerely,
