Dear Jim:

Betty and I congratulate you on receiving the Outstanding Michigan Citizen Award. Because of your countless achievements in public service and community involvement, you are most deserving of this recognition.

As a past recipient of this honor I am certain you are very pleased. It is a most appropriate honor for you because of your long, dedicated, effective and knowledgeable service on the Federal Communications Commission.

Betty and I will always treasure our wonderful friendship with you.

You, Jim, have served this nation with honor and distinction. All of us are proud of you and your accomplishments, especially your home state and ours, Michigan.

Warmest best wishes,

Mr. James H. Quello
