JAMES H. QUELLO

Mr. James Quello
Commissioner
FCC
1919 M Street, NW
Washington, DC 20554

Dear Jim,

What a pleasant surprise it was to greet you in the Commissary at 20th Century Fox today. My Russian friends from the Russian motion picture industry thought you were fascinating. They loved your story about your battalion commander experience with the "Ruskies."

Another pleasant surprise to find your letter of October 22 with the enclosures upon my return from lunch to the office. Your wordsmithy is fascinating with its "I claimed delusions of adequacy and 70% of my marbles"!! Indeed, it is "a good norm in Washington."

I am taking the liberty of sending a copy of your letter to me and the enclosures, including your fine speech printed in the Congressional Record concerning the Mideast War. (to the Reagan library)

Again, thanks for all of your good will. I am proud that you are serving our country in such a critical agency as is the FCC today.

Kind regards and best wishes.

Sincerely,

Charles Z. Wick
