Dear Bill,

Wish I could be with you to celebrate your landmark 60th birthday and to personally congratulate you on a lifetime of notable accomplishments.

Your distinguished broadcast leadership reflects credit on the broadcast industry and on your company.

As for me, I have celebrated 19 years of anniversaries of my 60th birthday -- so you still have a long way to go. Remember that classic saying "Old broadcasters never die, they just lose their frequency."

Happy birthday and best wishes for continued achievement in the exciting years ahead!

Sincerely,

James H. Quello
Chairman
