Dear Diane,

I want to register my gratitude and my staff's gratitude for your outstanding performance in all facets of FCC communications law.

You should realize we considered you a highly valued member of our office family.

Everyone was impressed with your drive, expertise and positive personality.

Congratulations on your appointment and also congratulations to Discovery for selecting such a qualified, personable executive.

As you know, our office is always open to you. You will be treated as a favorite sister.

Best wishes for continued accomplishment.

Sincerely,

James H. Quello
