Dear John,

Congratulations on your exciting new job as president of Newtech, but I'm really sorry that you are leaving the NAB. Your communications expertise, sound thinking and stability will be missed. I consider you the leading broadcast authority on practical utilization of advanced technology. As a longtime friend, I particularly valued your opinions and advice.

My staff and I look forward to working with you. You have our best wishes for continued achievement in your challenging new assignment.

Sincerely,

James H. Quello
Commissioner
