Dear Jim:

I enjoyed very much the opportunity to spend a few moments together with you and so many old friends on June 24, 2004 at the Monocle Restaurant. Thank you for inviting our friend, Ted Stevens, and for all the special touches including the posters. It was so nice to meet your son and daughter-in-law.

I love my work, relish the many challenges it provides, and look forward to each new day of my career with a sense of optimism and purpose.

The 109th Congress presents new challenges and opportunities. Communications technology has changed dramatically over the last several years. The resulting issues are complex, and likely to be contentious, but I stand ready to meet the challenge.

Thank you for all your efforts to make the event such a success. I am grateful to you for your continued encouragement and support. I am looking forward to celebrating your 100th birthday, my friend.

Aloha,

DANIEL K. INOUE
United States Senator

Margie and I returned from Hawaii & were greeted by your wonderful surprises. Aloha
