

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
Washington, D.C. 20554

OFFICE OF COMMISSIONER
JAMES H. QUELLO

October 8, 1985

Robert C. McFarlane, Assistant to the President for Security Affairs
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Bud McFarlane:

My wife and I were delighted with your masterful performance on "Meet the Press."

You dominated the interview through incisive, expert responses and gained new friends for keeping America strong and for President Reagan's wise defense policies.

This eulogy comes from my perspective of 11½ years as a commissioner at the Federal Communications Commission (twice reappointed by President Reagan); 28 years in broadcasting from news to VP and GM and as a former combat infantry battalion commander in World War II . . . also as a speaker this past spring before 200+ TV news directors giving them hell for "the frantic zeal to criticize the government of their own country and undermine national will." Surprisingly many agreed!

Congratulations and best wishes for continued achievement.

Cordially,

James H. Quello
