OFFICE OF COMMISSIONER
JAMES H. QUELLO

November 21, 1994

Dear Sir/Madam,

It is a pleasure to recommend Kenneth E. Kurel for admission to your law school.

I have known him for over ten years and admire his drive, ambition, character and sincerity of purpose. Since his discharge from the Marines, he has worked his way through college with two jobs.

He is the type I would be glad to recommend for employment at the FCC. At last count, we had 310 FCC lawyers regulating the converging complex telecommunication industry including telephone, TV, cable, wireless, cellular, PCS and satellite services.

The last student I recommended for admission to the University of Detroit Mercy School of Law had similar qualities of hard work, intelligence and dedication. The student was Daren Benzi who is now an outstanding success as an FCC introductory level attorney. He was promoted to a higher FCC rank within one year and last month was one of a few new attorneys to receive an outstanding service bonus for superior performance.

If afforded the opportunity, I expect Kenneth Kurel, too, will become an outstanding lawyer and reflect credit on his school.

Please call or write if further information is required.

Sincerely,

James H. Quello
