Dear Bruce,

In a recent speech, I stated I haven't missed an official meeting or award in my over 22 years at the FCC.

Immodestly, my last count of awards numbered 32. You should know that the most appreciated were (1) the Radio Hall of Fame, and (2) the NAB Distinguished Service Award. They are especially meaningful to me because my prime lifetime career was broadcasting, especially radio broadcasting.

All your courtesies are appreciated. I'm proud (and lucky) to join the ranks of all your distinguished Hall of Fame members.

Thanks again for adding such a memorable event to my lifetime pleasant experiences.

Cordially,

James H. Quello
Commissioner
