

Updates on Quello Research Proposals and Project Developments

For Advisory Board Meeting, September 2015

Completed Projects

Dutton completed role as a co-principal investigator, 'The Governance and Design of Collaborative User-driven Innovation Platforms', Danish Strategic Research Council (2010-2014, Dutton's part shifted to MSU in 2014), Main Project 0603-00297B awarded to Management Engineering at the Technical University of Denmark, with a subcontract to WHD.

Dutton completed 'The Social Shaping of Mobile Internet Developments and their Implications for Evolving Lifestyles', supported by a contract from Huawei Technologies Co. Ltd to Oxford University Consulting.

Dutton completed UNESCO's 'Reconciling and Balancing Privacy, Freedom of Expression, Access and Ethical Outcomes: The Global Debate over Principles, Policies and Practices', UNESCO Division of Freedom of Expression. Support the drafting of UNESCO Internet Study. US $20K. Bill has presented on this at IGF in Geneva, and will give a lecture at Hong Kong Baptist University on this report.

Dutton and Bauer completed two consultations to write briefing documents in support of the World Bank's World Development Report (2016). These led to two papers:

Dutton, W. H. (2015), 'Multistakeholder Governance?', Quello Center Working Paper. East Lansing, MI: Quello Center, Michigan State University. Available at: http://papers.ssrn.com/sol3/papers.cfm?abstract_id=2615596

Bauer, J. M., and Dutton, W. H. (2015), 'The New Cyber Security Agenda: Economic and Social Challenges to a Secure Internet', a joint working paper for the Oxford Global Cybersecurity Project at the Oxford Martin Institute, University of Oxford, and the Quello Center at MSU.
http://papers.ssrn.com/sol3/papers.cfm?abstract_id=2614545

Ongoing Projects

Dutton continues as a Co-Principal Investigator, Cyber Security Capacity Building Centre, supported by a grant from the UK's Foreign & Commonwealth Office and Cabinet Office, and based at the Oxford Martin School, Oxford University, with his role shifted to MSU.

New Proposals

Two Michigan Applied Public Policy Research (MAPPR) Grant Proposals

Proposal on 'Digital Divides in the State of Michigan: Inequalities Tied to the (Non-) Use of the Internet and Related Information and Communication Technologies' William

H. Dutton, Quello Professor of Media and Information Policy; Bianca Reisdorf, Quello Research Associate; R. V. Rikard, M&I Research Associate; and Mitchell Shapiro, Quello Outreach Specialist, Submitted 24 August 2015

Proposal on 'Policies to Support the Internet's Role in the Revitalization of Detroit'
William H. Dutton, Quello Professor of Internet Studies; Bianca Reisdorf, Postdoctoral Research Fellow; and Mitchell Shapiro, Research Associate, Submitted August 24, 2015

MSU Strategic Partnership Grant

A Proposal by the Quello Center, College of Communication Arts & Sciences, to the Vice President for Research & Graduate Studies for a 2016 Strategic Partnership Grant, entitled 'Big Data Analytic Capacity for Digital Age Policy Research: The Internet Connectivity in American Life Platform', submitted 17 September 2015

Future Prospects

Proposal developed, looking for a potential sponsor, on a case study of the implications of Detroit's Rocket Fiber Project

Proposal for the Impact of Network Neutrality: NSF? Benton Foundation?

Further development of the submitted proposals, whether or not they are approved for awards.