

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20554

OFFICE OF COMMISSIONER
JAMES H. QUELLO

February 12, 1981

To Whom It May Concern:

I'd like to recommend Donna B. Lovett without reservation to any prospective employer.

She is intelligent, personable and attractive with excellent character. She has been an achiever all her young life in and out of school.

She is the type of well-motivated young lady who would be a credit to the television or radio industry -- the type I would be glad to hire if I were still in the industry. I hope she receives the opportunity to enter the communications field for which she has so diligently prepared.

I'd be pleased to discuss her qualifications personally with any interested parties.

Sincerely,

James H. Quello
