

June 18, 1981
(Bob Lee's retirement)

Bob:

I'm happy to join your many friends in congratulating you on your exemplary achievements and to express my personal appreciation for the outstanding contributions you have made to the Commission the past 28 years.

Your wisdom, wit and human understanding often saved the day in solving some of the more complex controversial issues. With your well-timed humor, you made the Commission a more pleasant and productive place in which to work.

You not only broke all records for length of service as a Commissioner, but more important, you played a vital leadership role in the development and progress of telecommunications in America.

Mary joins me in wishing you and Rose best wishes for health, happiness and continued achievement in the great years ahead.

A great guy that I have a lot of respect and affection for had a saying that I think is most appropriate for this occasion ---you may have heard it before but it really applies to you ---"May the Lord be with you, but not too soon."

257