Washington, DC 20515

Dear John:

A belated thanks for your staunch leadership in legislating funding for public broadcasting -- it was needed, deserved, and appreciated.

I just completed reading the transcript of the Congressional Record. Without your active advocacy (supported by my most able TCAF associates, Al Swift and Tom Tauke), the increase just wouldn't have materialized.

You are a respected and appreciated champion of public broadcasting, and I am honored to have you as a friend.

Best always,

James H. Quello

Dear Al:

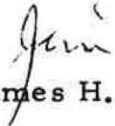

A belated thanks for your staunch support for increased funding for public broadcasting.

I just completed reading the Congressional Record transcript. Without your superior knowledge of the subject and your forceful advocacy, the day would have been lost. I'm sure Chairman Dingell and fellow TCAFer Tom Tauke welcomed your vital, timely intervention.

You are a respected and appreciated champion of public broadcasting. I'm gratified that TCAF presented me with the opportunity to work closely with you and experience firsthand the workings of a sincere, most able representative of the people.

Best wishes for continued achievement in the years ahead.

Sincerely,

Dear Tom:

A belated thanks for your staunch support for increased funding for public broadcasting.

I just completed reading the Congressional Record transcript. Without your superior knowledge of the subject and your forceful advocacy, the day would have been lost. Your efforts were particularly significant in that it lent some degree of bi-partisan support to this important issue. I'm sure Chairman Dingell and fellow TCAFer Al Swift welcomed your timely, vital contribution.

You are a respected and appreciated champion of public broadcasting. I'm gratified that TCAF presented me the opportunity to work closely with you and experience firsthand the workings of a sincere, most able representative of the people.

Best wishes for continued achievement in the years ahead.

Sincerely,
