Dear Bob:

Only a longstanding speaking commitment keeps me from attending the MDA/NFLPA award dinner honoring my good friend, John Kluge.

You are honoring a distinguished broadcaster and humanitarian. I'm enclosing my statement.

Please convey my warmest regards to John and best wishes to you and MDA for continued achievement.

Cordially,

James H. Quello

STATEMENT FOR NFLPA/MDA AWARD TO JOHN KLUGE

It is a special pleasure to congratulate John Kluge, a distinguished broadcast pioneer, on winning the prestigious NFLPA/MDA award. MDA deserves congratulations, too, for its worthwhile humanitarian work and for honoring a broadcast leader with years of dedicated adherence to excellence and responsibility in programming and public service.

Best wishes to both Mr. Kluge and MDA for continued distinguished public service achievement in the great years ahead.

James H. Quello, Commissioner
Federal Communications Commission
