Honorable Jim Wright, Majority Leader
Office of the Majority Leader
U.S. House of Representatives

Dear Mr. Majority Leader:

Your thoughtful note regarding our recent Hamel Park dinner is just another example of why your leadership and popularity are so universally recognized and appreciated.

Needless to say, you were a most personable, stimulating dinner partner. I particularly enjoyed the opportunity to get better acquainted and to exchange ideas. . . and everyone enjoyed your masterful handling of the question and answer period.

Please stay well. With your experienced wisdom, human consideration and negotiating expertise, you are destined for the all-time governmental Hall of Fame.

Kindest regards,

James H. Quello
