OFFICE OF COMMISSIONER
JAMES H. QUELLO

November 6, 1986

The Honorable John D. Dingell
U. S. House of Representatives
2221 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear John,

It's always great news to see another impressive victory for a valued longtime friend. Heartiest congratulations and best wishes for continued future achievement!

Also, congratulations to son, Chris. Is this the continuance of a distinguished Dingell dynasty? -- your Dad in 1932 -- you in 1955 and Chris in 199_? As I stated in my introduction to your speech some time ago "Detroit, Michigan and the Nation have been exceptionally well served by the remarkable record of 54 years of Dingell distinguished service and leadership in Congress."

I'd like to meet Chris when he comes to town. Also, I'd like to introduce him or get him better acquainted with Detroit and Michigan broadcasters -- perhaps, at the 1987 annual convention of the Michigan Association of Broadcasters.

Let's get together for lunch before the new session and have another frank heart-to-heart visit.

Best,

Jim
James H. Quello

P.S. I was also happy to see our friend, Al Swift, with an impressive win.
