Dear Al and John,

Thanks for your gracious advance invitation to the USA Today fifth anniversary celebration.

Unfortunately, Mary and I will be in Kenya, Africa, observing our 50th wedding anniversary, September 14th. (Remarkable how well an agile sense of humor serves a woman.)

Your anniversary bash is a tough one for me to miss. You may recall, Allen, I personally sent you a congratulatory note after the first week of publication with a personal check for $45.00 to be counted among your first paid subscribers.

I'm delighted with USA Today's success and you have my best wishes for continued success and growth in the promising years ahead.

Cordially,

James H. Quello
