

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
Washington, D.C.

OFFICE OF COMMISSIONER
JAMES H. QUELLO

June 13, 1988

PERSONAL

Gene Jankowski, President
CBS Broadcasting Group
51 W. 52nd Street
New York, NY. 10019

Dear Gene,

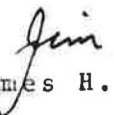

Your quote in Electronic Media is right on target -- "The books are perceptions of the past, and I think what is more important is what you're doing today."

I'm tired of the over-loaded market in kiss and tell books. Most are from disgruntled corporate or family rejects or from reporters seeking money and recognition by scandalizing the life styles of the successful.

You will have to wait until I leave the Commission July 1, 1991, before I start writing my book. I'll send you an autographed copy -- you and CBS will like what I say about you. It will make good license renewal reading.

Best wishes to you, that great pioneer Bill Paley and the great entrepreneur -- Larry Tisch for continued achievement in the challenging years ahead.

Cordially,

James H. Quello
