Commissioner James H. Quello
Federal Communications Commission
Washington, D.C.

Dear Commissioner:

I find I have been very remiss in not letting you know that I read your FCC speech delivered to the American Women in Radio and Television organization.

You were good enough to give me a copy when I was in Washington, and I have to commend you again for your combination of real wit and vital editorial policy which you so eloquently expressed in that speech.

When, and if, you ever retire from the FCC, you should head up the AARP.

Cordially,

David Levy
