

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

April 24, 1989

Dear Mr. Quello:

I was pleased to learn that the Michigan Association of Broadcasters is honoring you with its "Outstanding Michigan Citizen Award." I want to congratulate you on receiving this award and wish you a very Happy Birthday as well.

Your 15 years on the Federal Communications Commission have been an outstanding sequel to a distinguished career in broadcasting. You have used well your thorough knowledge of the industry when handling matters brought before the FCC, and your work has greatly benefitted the American people.

Barbara joins me in commending you on your achievements and on your contributions to public service. We wish you continued success and every happiness in the years to come. May God bless you always.

Sincerely,

George H. W. Bush

Mr. James H. Quello
Commissioner
